False Arrest Suit Nets Waukegan Ass't Supervisor $1,000

George Patraitis, defendant in a $5,000 suit for false arrest, must have been convinced that arresting folks on false charges doesn't pay, Monday, when Circuit Judge Dady awarded $1,000 damages to A. J. Sutkus, assistant supervisor from Waukegan Township and secretary of the Lithuanian Building and Loan Association. Sutkus was exonerated from the charge brought against him last spring by Patraitis who claimed that he failed to turn over a check for $200 to the Lithuanian Association which Patraitis gave him in payment for a loan, by producing clarifying records.

Sutkus later filed suit against Patraitis for $5,000 damages and alleged that political enemies had caused his arrest. Patraitis failed to appear Monday, but upon the testimony of Sutkus' witnesses, Judge Dady entered judgment for $1,000.

SORENSEN HEARING SET FOR MONDAY

Released Following Arrest After Posting Two $500 Bonds

The case against Einar Sorenson, Democratic leader, charged with driving while drunk and fleeing from the scene of an accident, will be heard at 2 o'clock next Monday afternoon, October 2.

Sorenson was arrested in Waukegan Monday afternoon after remaining in seclusion for three days, recovering from head injuries received during the accident Friday night, but was released after he had posted $500 bonds on each of the charges. The accident occurred late Friday night, Sept. 22, when Sorenson and Gerald Strang, clerk of the board of review, were driving west on Grand Avenue, Waukegan. Sorenson failed to make the curve near Ash street, overturned and crashed into a car owned by Joe Bobnick which was parked at the curb.

Sorenson Escapes
Both cars were completely wrecked and Sorenson and Strang received serious cuts about the head. Strang was released after being booked for investigation at Sorenson's hearing, but Sorenson disappeared after he had been left at a nearby house to await an ambulance.

Charges of assault and battery brought by John C. Epker, who had refused to drive Sorenson to Antioch, and received, in consequence, a punch in the nose, were withdrawn.

Sorenson was arrested by Patrolman Cal Hoff who recognized him as he was driving near Genesee and Lake street in a state-owned automobile furnished Sorenson for his work as state oil inspector.

CRUCIAL BATTLES LOOM AS SPECIAL SESSION NEARS

Consider Bond Issue for Unemployment Relief

ASSAILED GOVERNOR FOR KILLING 1% TAX

Springfield, Sept. 28—Disturbing factors, becoming stronger every day, now threaten to make the series of assembly sessions, beginning early next month, a series of crucial battles which will make Illinois political history.

The Democratic organization, weakened by threatened downstate defections and the unwillingness of the Roosevelt administration to give it either sympathy or support, will have to fight for its life. It must put through a program which, at best, is unwanted. If it puts it through with the lash, the steam roller and by patronage and other favors, there will be an aroused public sentiment that cannot easily be stilled. If the Democrats fail, having a majority of both houses of the assembly and the governor, it will be a demonstration of unfitness.

Republicans Flirt With Satan

The Republicans go into the fight with everything to gain and nothing to lose. They should present an even more united front than they did in the regular session. Some of the Republican brothers who flirted with Satan during the regular session have found that the Democratic devil is still a snare and a deluder. Some of the Democratic leaders also claim to have been "double-crossed."

So far the Democrats are operating on the old theory that "sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." They are centering their efforts to pass a bond issue of around $30,000,000 for unemployment relief, about 90 per cent in Cook county. After that will come a liquor control law, on which there is as much disagreement as there is over relief. Then, it is indicated, will follow reform in taxation with the limiting of taxes on real estate, repeal of the anti-trust laws and a dozen other laws now under serious consideration by the governor and the Democratic leaders. The governor's friends are watching to see that he is not "put in the middle" by any moves to rehabilitate Chicago's Mayor Kelly, now suffering from a severe case of civic censure and who still refuses to tell where he got around half a million dollars on, which he failed to pay income tax until nabbed for fraud by the federal government.

Dunham Made State Chairman

The first moves to get the relief measure under way were made last week when Gov. Horner named Robert J. Dunham of Chicago as chairman of the State Unemployment Re-

TAXATION MENACES RECOVERY

It is a noteworthy fact that many observers fear that one of the greatest barriers to the success of the Administration's recovery program is taxation.

Thousands of employers want to raise wages and employ more men and women. They want to do their part in starting the march of progress again. But they can't get money out of the air—and a constantly increasing percentage of their revenue is usurped by the tax collector.

It would be a bitter irony if the effort of one branch of government to restore prosperity is disrupted by another branch of government, which takes from the citizen and the business the money with which prosperity can be made. That rigid governmental economy—federal, state, county and local—is essential to our future, is a fact that looms large in the minds of millions of citizens.

PUBLIC CONSCIENCE AND THE N R A

With the coming of fall, the N R A enters its most critical phase. It got off to a fine start with public sentiment massed behind it. That sentiment is still there—but the novelty is beginning to wear out, the first thrill of excitement is dying down, and people are wanting to be shown. Millions of workers are confronted by the unpleasant spectacle of rising prices unaccompanied by comparable increases in their earning capacity. Business generally believes in the N R A, wants to support it, but many do not know where to get the money. President Roosevelt points out to the people that success or failure of the recovery program now rests to the greatest extent in their hands.

In line with this, the most important recent step was the N R A customer mobilization. The pledge—which found millions of signers—involves boycott of non-N R A businesses and patronage for those which display the blue eagle. There is no legal means of enforcing the pledge on a signer who breaks it—that part of the campaign really is voluntary and, as General Johnson declared, depends entirely on the public's conscience.

"What will happen to Ford?" for his failure to sign the N R A code, is being asked on every street corner. His wage and work standards are entirely in line with the code. He simply objects to signing. How much that will cost him in lost business is an interesting and important speculation. If General Johnson has his way, Ford cars are going to be a drug on the market from now until he signs. Temporarily the Ford imbroglio has been sidetracked by controversy with the stubborn soft coal industry.

As for the early influence of the N R A on general business, it has done wonders, according to a recent review by Dun and Bradstreet. Reports from all parts of the country show enlarged spending power, stimulated employment and the disappearance of the feeling of suspense and apprehension which gripped the country for three years. Volume of business, in comparison to a year ago, has substantially increased and the forward movement is uninterrupted. New employment is put at about three million.

WILL POLITICS RULE?

Since the newspapers of Illinois published so many articles about politics controlling the Illinois Supreme court, the eyes of the entire state have been turned on this high judicial body, which has always been known to function independently of politics. When the present Supreme court was organized they broke the rule of many generations, and appointed a steering committee, the majority of whom should have been Republicans on account of their seniority. The two Republicans who should have been on the committee are Judges Clyde Stone of Peoria and Frederick R. DeYoung of Chicago. By ignoring Justice DeYoung, the committee was made up of Judges Stone, Orr and Jones.

This committee has to do with the appointing of all employees of the Supreme court.

Will Democratic judges be called into a huddle before making decisions?

The people of the State of Illinois hope the Supreme court will be kept at the same high standard as it has been for many years.

IS THIS A CURE FOR DEPRESSION?

Many farmers in the Middle West are wondering why the government is paying packing houses 70 cents each for killing 4,500,000 pigs and throwing the carcasses on dumps and into rivers, when the average farmer would be glad to sell the pigs at the government price and kill them for less than 70 cents each, if he could get the carcass for food or fertilizer and also save shipping costs. It is hard to understand how this tremendous waste of food can go on when millions of Americans are reported starving. Taxpayers are being compelled to pay for the destruction of cotton, wheat and hogs, on one hand, and, on the other, spend hundreds of millions more to feed the unemployed.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday at the Gifford hotel, when Miss Anna L. Pritzl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pritzl of Park Falls, was united in marriage to Arnold W. Buschman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Buschman of Antioch.

The renovation of the Opera House Mock is fast taking effect. The work on the south portion of the building is rapidly nearing completion as far as the outward side of the building is concerned.

Ground was broken Wednesday morning in the lot just west of the Opera House. While L. B. Grice would not make a definite statement as to just what the project was under way, it is understood that he and others are planning the erection of a new modern theatre. Rumor further estimates that the cost of this new "movie" house will run close to $40,000.

George Bartlett has brought the old Christensen house and will start immediate improvements.

A number of schoolmates of Lois King gave her a farewell party at her home last Saturday afternoon.

Besides the bones, arrow heads, beads and various other Indian relics were unearthed.

RESULTS OF SWIMMING MEET FAVOR SENIORS

Seniors Cop the Majority of Points for Races and Strokes

Despite the chilliness of the Channel Lake waters at the first plunge, the swimming meet held at the Smith Hotel Beach for high school students Friday afternoon excited the interest and enthusiasm of a larger share of the student body.

At the close of the meet it was found that the Seniors had totaled a higher number of points, both in the boys and girls divisions, than any of the other classes. The totals for the boys are: Seniors, 36; Juniors, 32; Sophomores, 11; and Freshmen, 11. Senior girls, 21; Juniors, 20; Sophomores, 16; and Freshmen, 10. Individual honors for the boys are as follows:

Crawl: Steffenberg, a junior; first; Bishop, a junior, second; Christensen, a senior, third; and Bartlett, senior, fourth.

Breast stroke: Hussey senior, first; Olsen, junior, second; Sherwood, sophomore, third; and Sherwood, junior, fourth.

Underwater swim: (In order of ranking) Osmond, senior, J. Sheen, senior; and Sid Hughes, freshman.

Fancy diving: Bishop, Bartlett, Olsen, and Partridge, a freshman.

Long distance: Steffenberg, Bob Christensen, freshman, J. Desher, senior, and Waters, sophomore.

Backhand: Hussey.

Boat Race Results

In the various types of boat races, the honors were divided, the sophomores taking the "seven-in-boats" race; the freshmen taking the "four-in-boats" race; and the juniors taking the regular boat race. The relay was won by the seniors, whose team was composed of Hills, Christensen, Hussey, and Bartlett; Juniors were second.

Girls' Division

Girls' individual honors, in order of ranking, are as follows:

Backhand: Louise Smith, senior; Margaret Hughes, sophomore.

Breast: Louise Smith.

Under water: A. Wetterer, junior; Ruth Hughes, senior.

Long distance: Dorothy Hunter, Winnie King, End Sheen, freshman, and Betty Maier.

Boat race was won by the sophomores. The relay was taken by the senior team, composed of Thelma Schlaak, Ruth Hughes, Cunningham and Smith.

Intramural games continue to be held every afternoon after school, whenever weather permits. The boys' percentage averages Tuesday showed the seniors and juniors to be tied with a .666 average, followed by a .500 tie between the sophomores and freshmen. The seniors defeated the juniors Monday afternoon in softball, 13-0.

Mrs. Ruby Richey was unexpectedly honored by the presentation of a birthday cake bearing one candle in the form of a question mark on the occasion of her birthday, Sept. 21.

The surprise was brought in by Mrs. Murray from the kitchen during the lunch hour, as she entered the cafeteria to take her place at the "teachers'" table. In response to the students' Happy Birthday song greeting, Mrs. Richey was obliged to stand on a chair and sing "Many Thanks."

lot to the school house. Mert Haynes is doing the work.

Miss Ethel McGuire, returned Saturday from Elkhorn Wis., where she visited with Mrs. G. H. Harris and attended the Walworth County Fair.

Abe Crowley must be the boss farmer of this section of the country, for on Wednesday he brought to town four ears of corn that weighed 5½ pounds.

Miss Laura Olcott is spending a few days this week at Nunda, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Wingeate.

Peter Strang of Millburn was overcome by the heat Saturday afternoon and as a result was in a serious condition for a few days. At present writing he is much better.

Mrs. Albert Barnstable and children are visiting at the home of their mother, Mrs. Shugart at Rockford, Ill., this week.

Thelma Schlaak and Charlotte Meyer were the first two first-year shorthand students to receive the Gregg Publishing Co. award for efficiency in transcription. Their awards were for a 300-word transcript. Others will receive awards throughout the year upon their attainment of a certain standard of excellency.

The girls in the Foods class began a study of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables this week, emphasizing certain raw fruits, because of the fact that cooking causes some fruits to lose their vitamins, minerals, flavor, and general efficiency as instruments of chewing.

The three weeks' preliminary reports will be issued from the office this week.

EIGHTH GRADE BOYS TO SEE WHITE SOX PLAY

The eleven boys from the eighth grade will be given a treat Saturday when they are taken to Chicago to witness a ball game between the Chicago White Sox and the St. Louis Browns. By reason of possessing and wearing Blue Valley Creamery baseball caps, secured by Prin. Clabaugh, the boys will be admitted to the game free of charge.

The baseball percentage average of the Antioch grade school baseball team in the Northern Lake Co. Grade School Conference now stands at .500, having lost one game and won another. They defeated Fox Lake Sept. 20, 16-10, and lost to Fox Lake Friday, 7-5.

Prin. Ralph E. Clabaugh will go to Gurnee tonight to judge the educational exhibit held at the high school in connection with the Warren Township Fair.

Two Opposing Types of Books Reviewed Here

"Esther Waters" and "Rich Girl—Poor Girl" Are Both Readable

For those who have a bent for English books, and English situations, "Esther Waters," by George Moore is recommended. It is not a story of upperclass Englishmen, as so many books are, but of the serving class.

In particular it deals with the life of a young servant girl, her "fall" and succeeding events.

There is a background of racing and its effects upon the lives of the characters which add to the interest of the tale.

The style is not hurried; neither is it prosy or discursive. The atmosphere of the period and class is clearly caught by the conversation and such description as is used. "Esther Waters" is not a sensational book, and there is no great suspense worked up toward a climax. It is, however, very readable.

Rich Girl—Poor Girl

In contrast to the calm accuracy of the above-mentioned book is "Rich Girl—Poor Girl," by Ruth Dewey Groves. This book is almost sure to appeal to uncritical readers, interested merely in the telling of an absorbing story. The plot, of course, centers around two young women, one the pampered darling of fortune, the other a bread-winner, and a young man who captures the fancy of both. In spite of the sensationalism introduced by gangsters, murder, and sinister plots, the story holds one's interest to the end.

Both of these books are to be found at the Antioch Public Library.

Can there be any stronger recommendation for a car than this America can't be fooled when it comes to spotting the best "buy" in any field. America knows too much about motor cars for that. So when one certain car wins almost as many buyers as the next two put together, you know the answer: IT MUST BE BETTER. And that's what the new Chevrolet Six most certainly is.

Chevrolet is better looking—Chevrolet has better bodies—built not just of steel alone, but of steel reinforced by a sturdy hardwood frame. Chevrolet has a better engine—six cylinders for economy, cushion balancing for killing vibration! And Chevrolet gives better value—a long line-up of modern features which no other low-priced car can match.

Now is the time to start thinking about a new car for winter! And when you do so, think of the way Chevrolet is leading in sales. Could you ask for any stronger recommendation for a low-priced car than that?

Teachers' Reception Is Well-Attended

The reception given at the high school Monday evening for grade and high school teachers by the P. T. A. drew a good crowd, who enjoyed the program of varied numbers and dancing.

Group singing was led by S. E. Pollock to commence the program. Hans von Holwede's Jazz band rendered several numbers after which Hans himself obliged with some numbers on his piano accordion. The reading of a play, "The Vanishing Princess," by Mrs. G. E. Phillips was followed by three songs by the M. E. male quartet, composed of L. G. Bright, S. E. Pollock, W. C. Petty, and the Rev. Philip T. Bohl.

Music for dancing was provided by the high school orchestra.

"Reality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, September 24.

The Golden Text was, "Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind" (Isaiah 65:17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I know that, whatever God doeth, it shall be forever; nothing can be put to it, nor anything taken from it; and God doeth it, that man should fear before him. That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requieth that which is past" (Eccl. 3:14, 15).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "To grasp the reality and order of being in its Science, you must begin by reckoning God as the divine Principle of all that really is" (p. 275).

INDIVIDUALITY AND REFINEMENT GUIDE
JEWELRY SELECTION

Seasonal Fads Ought Not to Take Precedence Over Good Taste

Most seasons have their jewelry fads. Sometimes it may be a particular style of bracelet; again it may be wooden beads, or wax beads; then again what is smart is determined more by size than composition or design.

During the past year the trend seemed to be to wear as little ornamentation as possible; it was smarter. Fads will come and fads will go, but there are a few general rules that may be observed at all times, subject, of course, to individual differences of taste.

Avoid Commonness

In the first place all gaudy or cheap looking ornaments are to be avoided with the possible exception of serving as complements to extreme sport costumes worn by youthful figures. There are few women who aren't delighted with a jewelry gift. Perhaps the attraction may be traced back to our primitive ancestors to whom a glittering or bright piece was an object of admiration. At any rate said attraction hasn't diminished noticeably, although the taste has become more refined—in most instances. All of us have at some time, however, been conscious of a feeling of irritation, of offended taste, because of a common display of so-called jewelry.

With this little dissertation concluded, let us continue.

Simplicity for Youth

Simplicity is the keynote to be observed by young girls. While, as a general rule, ornamentation is used to further emphasize a good feature, such as a dainty wrist, or pretty throat, youth is better served by its own soft charm than by artificiality.

A conspicuous piece may be worn to detract attention from a defect in another feature.

Evening dress usually requires some jewelry as accessory, but ostentatiousness is to be avoided.

Business women or traveling people should wear as little jewelry as possible. Several signet rings are not suitable for dressy or formal occasions. Dignity of ornament should characterize older women.

All ornamentation, of course, must be in accordance with the type of the wearer; the gown, and the occasion.

Scrambled Eggs Are Fine Meat Substitute

Speaking of things lowly, like the onion, etc., it is to be regretted that the egg often finds itself in such a position. Maybe it hasn't completely recovered from Humpty Dumpty's fall. At any rate there are countless eggs that never have any expectation of appearing on any table except the breakfast table, soft-boiled or fried.

There are other more fortunate eggs that eventually find themselves hard-cooked, to be deviled, sliced, or chopped up for sandwiches. It is surprising to find how few women really have the knack of scrambling eggs. Scrambled, they provide a change from the fried eggs, and may be used as a substitute for meat or any other main dish such as spaghetti.

Are Nutritious

Not only are they nutritious, containing protein, fat, minerals, but they are good and satisfying to hungry men or children with healthy hearty appetites.

For best results, break eggs into a bowl, beat lightly, and add a little milk. Pour into frying pan, (cast-iron preferred) salt, pepper, and fry over hot fire. Do not stir more than necessary. Be sure that all parts have been turned and become a golden brown before serving hot.

Clean Shoes Improve General Appearance

With suede shoes taking their rightful place in the wardrobe, while light summer footgear is relegated to the end of the row, there comes the question of cleaning. Summer shoes present a comparatively simple cleaning problem, as there are so many inexpensive shoe-cleaners for white cloth slippers as well as kid or canvas.

Suede shoes, on the other hand, are enemies of a different mettle. In addition to frequent brushing, they occasionally require a stronger remedy to regain their "good looks." economical North Dakota woman has endorsed cleaning them with steel wool, used either dry or with gasoline, and followed by brushing. She says that it roughens up the worn

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE ORPHEUM THEATRE

WLS Merry-Go-Round

Continued success of its theatrical ventures has prompted Radio Station WLS to make a road show unit of the popular Saturday afternoon feature, known as the WLS Merry-Go-Round. This informal weekly feature, like its predecessor, the WLS National Barn Dance Unit Show, has attracted so many listeners to the Prairie Farmer studios that several weeks ago it became necessary to close the Washington boulevard building promptly at 1 p.m. Finding this out, the station's listeners began crowding the studios as early as 9 a.m. to await a program that was not scheduled until 2 p.m. Over-crowding, even under these conditions, hurried the decision to build a merry-go-round program for a traveling unit.

The new road show is made up of the cream of the WLS talent and will present fourteen of the outstanding performers of the air. Among them are Carl and Harry, the Renfro Valley Boys—with their homely mountaineer airs and costumes; Lulu the Hill-billy girl with the natural flair for comedy and an excellent yodeling voice; "Ramblin'" Red Foley, the guitar strumming troubadour who has become one of America's most popular range song and ballad singers; John Lair, leading authority on folk music and an excellent singer; Slim Miller, outstanding exponent of the rural fiddlin' skill; and outstanding creator of comic antics; Eddie Allen, the Dixie harmonica king; "Spareribs," (Malcolm Claire) mimic and delineator of humorous colored characters; Billy Wood, xylophone expert; and Sue and Sally, comedy dancing duo.

They will all be at the Orpheum, Kenosha, Sunday and Monday, Oct. 1 and 2.

Girl Scout News

The Lone Star troop of Antioch Girl Scouts celebrated American Indian day Friday, Sept. 22, 1933.

The four patrols, White Bear, Lion, Nightingale, and Bluebird had Indian exhibits in their own corners.

Among the things exhibited was an Indian Bag made by an old Indian woman ninety years old and almost blind. This was brought by Jean Sherman.

We also gave a reception for our mothers. To entertain them some of the girls gave an Indian Legend. The girls who took part are as follows:

The Legend of the Prize Basket—Kish, the chief's daughter—Katherine Smith

The Chief—Carolyn Phillips

Lana, a slave girl—Yvonne Jensen

Stulta, the chief's son—Robert Stalter

Koots, Lana's faithful dog—Mildred Van Patten.

After the entertainment we had refreshments and then we voted on the exhibits. Lion Patrol won because they had more things, though Bluebird had more real Indian things.

Then we sang Taps and the patrol leaders, Myrtle Lovested, Mabel Simonsen, Florence Hackett and Mildred Horan, had Court of Honor.

Troop Scribe—Carolyn Phillips.

Belle, the hill-billy girl with the natural flair for comedy and an excellent yodeling voice; "Ramblin'" Red Foley, the guitar strumming troubadour who has become one of America's most popular range song and ballad singers; John Lair, leading authority on folk music and an excellent singer; Slim Miller, outstanding exponent of the rural fiddlin' skill; and outstanding creator of comic antics; Eddie Allen, the Dixie harmonica king; "Spareribs," (Malcolm Claire) mimic and delineator of humorous colored characters; Billy Wood, xylophone expert; and Sue and Sally, comedy dancing duo.

They will all be at the Orpheum, Kenosha, Sunday and Monday, Oct. 1 and 2.

Art Gun for Light Shoes
There will be many nice days this fall when heavy full garments will be cumbersome, and a good old summer standby will be slipped on instead. To meet this change light or blond shoes will be removed from their trees for inspection—and most likely they will bear the scars of summer. What then? If you have a piece of art gum handy, rub the shoes lightly with that to remove surface dirt. If you haven't, remember to get it the next time you are in town. Some people make a habit of carrying a piece in their purses when visiting away from home in the summer time, as it enables them to preserve a neat appearance with little effort.

EVENTUALLY you'll have modern, automatic gas heat. When your neighbors tell you of the joy and comfort that gas heat brings into their homes you'll want it, too. Then why not have it now? There's no need of putting off the day when you'll have this twentieth-century convenience. Before you order fuel, get the full facts on gas heat.

Now at new low rates, every home—even the most modest—can afford gas heat. Rates for gas are now one-half of what they were in the 1930-31 heating season. And our special offer lets you try before you buy. We'll install it at our expense and you pay only $3 a month rental during the first year for the equipment in the average home. This charge will be included in the bill for the gas you use. Use it for one month, two months or a year.

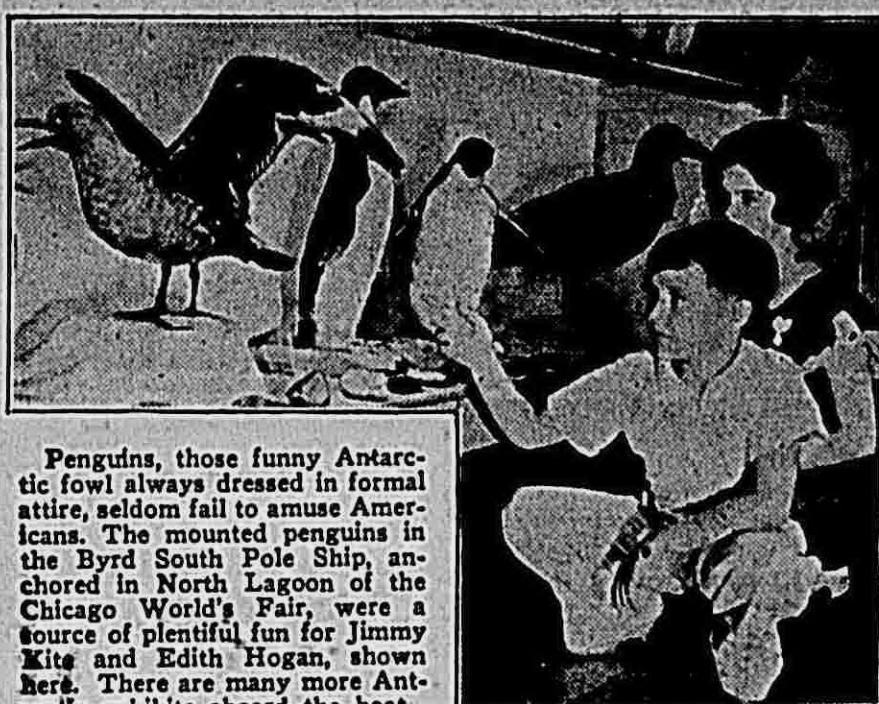

There are many reasons why you want gas heat. It ends days and nights of coal shoveling... of hauling ashes... of chopping kindling... the anxiety of watching fires, setting dampers. Walls and drapes stay clean, free from dust, grime and soot. There is no more tracked-up dirt from the basement.

SPECIAL SESSION

Relief Commission to succeed Edward J. Ryerson resigned. Dunham announced as a former official of Armour & Co. had also been a god organization Democrat and stood beside Carmak, Nash, Kelly and others in their last ditch fight against Roosevelt in the Chicago convention.

Dunham's appointment followed a demand by a weekly political paper printed in Chicago as "The Official Organ of the Regular Democratic Organization in Illinois." This organ insisted that some Republicans still had something to do with relief a condition which had to be rectified at once. A few issues ago the paper charged that "of fifty persons on relief loaned to a public office recently, more than half were Republicans."

These came from the work relief division, controlled directly by the state commission. Most of the other relief in Cook county has been in the hands of the county welfare bureau, completely controlled by the Democratic county board. The organization demanded it all and once even went so far as to insist that Democratic precinct captains be permitted to say who should receive relief. They still hope to put this plan into effect.

Democrats Supposed to "Go Along"

As soon as this appointment was made, Boss Pat Nash and his No. 2 man, Al Horan, went to Springfield, and with the governor, sent word to all Democratic members of the legislature to be sure to attend the session. County chairmen were then instructed to see that the legislators "showed up and went along."

But the storm had already broken. Sen. James O. Monroe, Democrat of Collinsville, had sent a broadside to every member and to all papers criticizing the administration bond issue plan, largely on the ground that it would tend to establish a perpetual dole and cost the taxpayers from fifty to a hundred millions a year. He pointed out many objections to the plan, and sounded a strong note when he demanded that the sales tax be repealed before the bond issue was approved.

A few days later the Illinois Agricultural Association met at Decatur with delegates from 95 counties and denounced the proposed bond issue. They called attention to the fact that the bond issue must go to a referendum next year and if it is defeated at the polls, the entire amount would have to be included in the 1935 general taxes.

The I. A. A. also bitterly criticized Gov. Horner for having vetoed the Lantz bills, which would have given Cook county the privilege of taking care of its poor by a special tax levy. It also assailed the governor's action in killing the Bederman resolution, a Republican measure passed at the regular session, which would have paved the way for a limitation on property taxes and $1,000 exemption for homes.

Alleged Fuel Tax Diversion

To make it all worse a suit was filed last week in the Sangamon county circuit court to restrain the diversion of motor fuel taxes to pay off the $20,000,000 poor relief bond issue approved by the voters last November. The name of a stenographer was used in the suit, but it is said that a group of road contractors is behind the action and have been assured by competent counsel that the diversion is illegal. The I. A. A. has also questioned the legality of this tax diversion.

Veterans in the legislature say that with its power and patronage the Democratic organization should be able to get the necessary 102 votes in the house and 34 votes in the senate to put through its program. Other members point out that times have changed and that the Democratic bosses will have to move cautiously to avoid scandal that would mean political destruction.

It is certain that the governor will try to confine discussion to the relief bond measure which he will have introduced. It is equally certain that powerful members, especially in the house, will try to amend and will try to substitute other methods for that of the governor. Unless it is forbidden by the wording of the call for the special session, the Lantz bills will be reintroduced. If they get in they will pass and the legislature would then be very apt to adjourn and go home, leaving Cook county to solve its own relief problem by levying a special tax.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Boyer Nelson were Chicago visitors yesterday.

Lake County Relief
Depends Upon Proper
Legislation, Rogers Says

Were it not for the fact that Governor Horner agreed to call a Special Session of the Illinois General Assembly, the allocation by the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission to Lake County for September would have been $20,030.00 less than that actually made available, it was stated today by Alvah L. Rogers, Chairman of the Lake County Emergency Relief Committee.

In reviewing the situation with respect to Lake County, Mr. Rogers states that $65,000.00 was required to meet emergency relief needs during the month of September. The Commission's funds, however, were so limited that it was obliged to proportion its resources among the counties of the State with the result that it could only make $44,070.00 available for this county.

When Governor Horner, Wilfred S. Reynolds, executive secretary of the Commission, and leaders in the General Assembly conferred with Harry L. Hopkins, Federal Emergency Relief Administrator, Mr. Hopkins agreed that if Governor Horner would promise to call a Special Session for enactment of emergency relief legislation, the Federal Government would provide further immediate help in Illinois, pending provision of additional State Funds by legislative action.

As a result of this action, the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission was able to make available funds sufficient to meet the emergency relief needs of Lake County for September.

"The continuance of emergency relief in Lake County is dependent upon the passage of proper emergency relief legislation at the coming Special Session," said Mr. Rogers. "Like other counties in the state, we are working to reduce our relief loads wherever possible, and will continue to do so, but we still have a large problem before us and it is essential that adequate funds be made available to give our needy families the necessities of life."

Fowle Simpson, Stewart Olson, "Sonny" Crandall, and Bob Smith attended the World's Fair Saturday.

Four Local Youths To Face Jury For Theft and Arson

The names of Robert Wilson, Edwin Hucker, Charles Pester, and Charles Polze will be brought before the October grand jury in Waukegan on several charges, the most serious being that of arson. The youths confessed last spring to burning the home of George V. Cordingly at Lake Villa on April 21, and also to numerous other thefts.

All four face a charge of the theft of $30 from King's Drug Store, while Wilson and Hucker face the burglary indictment for the theft at the John Jackson home at Lake Villa.

Upon their arrest last spring they made confessions to numerous other instances of petty thievery of gasoline, beer, cigarettes, guns, etc. and Hucker confessed to burning the "Cupboard."

Hucker was released on bond on June 24, and Polze some time before that.

Fate in the Guise of Bread

The greed of a New York woman brought about her death, when, rather than touch any of her savings amounting to $45,000, she grabbed up a piece of bread that had been used by a suicide to end his life.

Despondent over business and ill health an automobile mechanic went to a Broadway restaurant, purchased some bread and poured the poison which he had brought with him over it. He ate part of it, then walked to the wash room, knowing he would be dead in a few minutes. The ill-kempt woman spied the bread and hungrily ate it, but as she rose to go the agony overcame her and she soon died.
